BOWEN MONTHLY

BOWEN'S 11TH INAUGURATION LECTURER: PROF. OLAYINKA ADENIKINJU

Olayinka Adenikinju, a professor of Economics and a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria, has advocated inward focus to revive the Nigerian economy. In her recent inaugural lecture at Bowen, she emphasised the need to enhance corporate performance by addressing internal and external factors. In her paper entitled 'Act of God, or Looking inwards: Unraveling the Drivers of Corporate Performance in Nigeria,' Adenikinju highlighted issues in corporate governance due to poor data quality and suggested policy changes by the Nigerian government to tackle challenges like exchange rate volatility and inconsistent policies. Management Launches Wellness Initiative She also called for a revision of corporate governance codes, the deepening of the stock market, and improvements in data accessibility to foster economic growth.

EXCITING ACHIEVEMENTS IN THE COLLEGE OF MANAGEMENT AND SOCIAL SCIENCES!

We are thrilled to announce that Mr. Falope Williams Daniel, a 400 Level student in the Accounting programme, and the duo of Miss Yekini Elizabeth & Miss Akinola Mojinyinolaoluwa, both 300 Level students in the Economics programme, have qualified as Chartered Accountants. Their outstanding performance in all examinations makes them among the youngest individuals to be inducted into the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria. This remarkable accomplishment is not only a massive feat for their respective programs but also a source of pride for the entire College of Management and Social Sciences and Bowen University. Congratulations to Mr. Falope, Miss Yekini and Miss Akinola on this impressive achievement! 🌟 🎓 #AchievementUnlocked #CharteredAccountants #BowenUniversityPride
